Non-accredited recordings remain available for 30 days following the end of the course. Recordings can be accessed directly through Oversea's KATTEDRA platform using your personal login credentials.

PRESENTAZIONE

Numbers do not speak for themselves - they need to be explained. This module gives accountants the vocabulary to walk through a complete set of financial statements in English, present their analysis to an international audience, and hold their own in discussions with investors, auditors, and advisors.

FRUIZIONE

The course will be delivered entirely through Oversea's KATTEDRA platform and can be accessed using your personal login credentials.

PROGRAMMA

- Line-by-line vocabulary across the balance sheet, P&L, and cash flow statement - with false friends flagged
- How to present financial results to an English-speaking audience: structure, tone, and professional phrasing
- Ratio analysis in English: EBITDA, ROE, current ratio - how to calculate, name, and explain key metrics
- Analyst reports and management commentary: what good financial English looks and sounds like
- Live exercise: analysing and presenting a real company's annual report in English
