PRESENTAZIONE

Working internationally as a lawyer is not only a legal challenge - it is a precision challenge. This module prepares Italian lawyers for moments when correct terminology plays a role when talking about shares, Directors, Corporate Governance, ect.

FRUIZIONE

The course will be delivered entirely through Oversea's KATTEDRA platform and can be accessed using your personal login credentials.

PROGRAMMA

- The Company in English - types of company (Ltd, PLC, LLC, Inc.), key terminology, and why Italian equivalents often mislead
- Constitutional Documents - reading and understanding Articles of Association, Memoranda, and shareholder agreements in English
- Shares and Shareholders - share capital, classes of shares, transfers, pre-emption rights, and the language of equity
- Directors and Officers - duties, liabilities, board composition, and the vocabulary of corporate governance in English-speaking jurisdictions
- Board and General Meetings - notices, quorum, resolutions, minutes: the documents and the language behind them
- Corporate Transactions - the English of mergers, acquisitions, restructurings, and due diligence from a company law perspective
- Cross-border Practice - jurisdiction clauses, governing law, and the moments where Italian and English company law diverge in ways that matter

Thanks to the partnership between Oversea and Euroconference, every participant will receive a free one-to-one speaking session with an Oversea language coach - a full hour of personalised practice, focused entirely on their professional needs, areas for improvement and goals. It is this kind of personalised attention that transforms passive knowledge of English into active, confident professional English.
