PRESENTAZIONE

In M&A, accountants are at the heart of the deal. This module gives you the language to communicate your findings clearly - whether to a CFO, a deal lawyer, or an international investment bank.

FRUIZIONE

The course will be delivered entirely through Oversea's KATTEDRA platform and can be accessed using your personal login credentials.

PROGRAMMA

- M&A vocabulary in context: enterprise value, EBITDA multiples, working capital adjustments, earn-outs
- Financial due diligence in English: how to structure, write, and present findings to international deal teams
- Valuation reports and fairness opinions: professional English conventions for high-stakes documents
- How investment banks and advisory firms communicate during a deal - and how to match that register

Thanks to the partnership between Oversea and Euroconference, every participant will receive a free one-to-one speaking session with an Oversea language coach — a full hour of personalised practice, focused entirely on their professional needs, areas for improvement and goals. It is this kind of personalised attention that transforms passive knowledge of English into active, confident professional English.
