Non-accredited recordings remain available for 30 days following the end of the course. Recordings can be accessed directly through Oversea's KATTEDRA platform using your personal login credentials.

PRESENTAZIONE

Whether presenting to a board, pitching to investors, or advising on capital structure, the ability to speak and write about finance in English with precision is essential. This module builds both vocabulary and register.

FRUIZIONE

The course will be delivered entirely through Oversea's KATTEDRA platform and can be accessed using your personal login credentials.

PROGRAMMA

- Corporate finance vocabulary in depth: WACC, DCF, capital structure, leverage, dividend policy
- Pitchbooks, investment memos, and board presentations: how English-speaking finance professionals' structure their work
- Debt and equity markets: the English used in prospectuses, bond documentation, and capital raising communications
- Communicating with banks, investors, and rating agencies in English: register, tone, and persuasion
- Live exercise: presenting a corporate finance scenario and fielding questions from an English-speaking panel

Thanks to the partnership between Oversea and Euroconference, every participant will receive a free one-to-one speaking session with an Oversea language coach — a full hour of personalised practice, focused entirely on their professional needs, areas for improvement and goals. It is this kind of personalised attention that transforms passive knowledge of English into active, confident professional English.
